MAYORS REPORT – No Mayors Report

GUESTS – Scott & Pat Miller

- Millers had complaints about the state of the properties surrounding their house. From the front of their property they raised issues due to the neglect for stop signs and speeding up and down Walnut St. From the rear of the property they expressed concerns over many eye sores such as the vacant lot (needing mowed) the commercial properties at the intersection of 23 as well as the eye sore at the corner of Luther and Main (small studio that is half under construction) along with the dog kennels. All concerns were heard by council and will be handed off to the appropriate department / authorities.

Mary Stahl

- Many issues with zoning. Also, with the automobiles being able to park anywhere on properties. Mary would like to know the process of getting things done as there is not a clear picture for citations etc. Also, trash laying in people's properties.
